Dynamic, visual, auditory, and tactile teaching methods which serve a dual purpose: creating neural connections necessary for long-lasting learning and keeping students active and engaged.

Direct Instruction

A systematic approach to the learning process that incorporates Orton-Gillingham principles and research-based programs such as Reading Mastery™ and Wilson Reading System®.

Executive Functioning Skills

Concrete strategies and tools to strengthen cognitive processes such as memory, attention, planning, organization, emotional regulation, and self-monitoring.

Assistive Technologies

Training in tools, apps, and extensions that foster learning independence in students with or without learning exceptionalities.

WHAT ARE SUPPORT HOURS?

Our 1-to-1 Support Plans are effective because they include Teaching Hours and Support Hours. For every 60 minutes of teaching time, we dedicate 30 additional minutes to background support. Support Hours include:

Extensive Lesson Planning

Learning Specialists craft engaging lessons for each student based on strengths, specific areas of need, interests, and learning style.

Accountability Check-Ins

Learning Specialists check-in with students between scheduled lessons to review goals and provide accountability.

Thorough Progress Reports

Parents receive reports that detail academic progress and provide suggestions to further goals at home.

Ongoing Parental Communication

Learning Specialists are available to guide parents through email, or by scheduling a phone or video appointment.

Shared Strategy and Advocating for the Student

With parental permission, we initiate contact with the student's school, classroom teacher, psychologists, or other professionals to ensure that a cohesive strategy is in place.
